10:00 – 21:00 Discover the wines and the city of Eger

The full-day bus tour takes us to one of the most famous wine regions of Hungary, namely to Eger (approx. a 90-minute drive to North-East Hungary). We start with a visit to the Cathedral of Eger, which was built in neo-classical style. Eger Castle, one of the historic forts that saved Hungary from the Turkish invasion, is also a must. We cannot skip the Marzipan Museum, a very special place, showcasing incredible pieces of art made of marzipan. We promise you will not believe your own eyes. Viewing only, not tasting! The tour in Eger ends in a famous winery, with a mouthwatering early dinner. The food is prepared in traditional ovens and served in a cellar run by the Thummerer Family.

THURSDAY, 12th SEPTEMBER 2019

18:00-23:00 Welcome dinner and Budapest by night

Our program will start with a welcome dinner at the Sir Lancelot Restaurant with a “Medieval Feast” that travels us back to the roots of the Chaîne recalling the atmosphere of those antiquated times.

This unique dinner will be followed by a magnificent view of Budapest by night for our guests, a breathtaking view of the twin-city Buda and Pest. A spectacular sight of the Castle District with its fairy-tale like Fishermen's Bastion, the slender spire of the Matthias Church, the huge dome of the former Royal Palace, the 150 years old Chain Bridge and the Hungarian Parliament, all lit up with a million lights which will most likely enchant you.

FRIDAY, 13th SEPTEMBER 2019

10:00 – 18:00 Excursion to Törley sparkling wine cellar and to the “Great Plain”

This day we could not offer better than a visit to the Törley Sparkling Wine Cellar, the most famous sparkling wine producer in Hungary. A tasting and a visit to the Exhibition along with the Visitor's Centre will surely be a remarkable program for you all.

We continue our tour to the Great Plain. For more than 2,000 years, the Great Hungarian Plain (known as the Alföld in Hungarian) has been home to a rich cultural tradition of pastoral living and animal husbandry techniques. During this tour to the countryside you will get insight to the famous Hungarian horse-riding traditions. The fascinating village of Lajosmizse, which is situated in the middle of vast grazing grounds and sandy steppes await us. You will have the opportunity to taste traditional Hungarian dishes as well as complementing local wines. After lunch we will view a spectacular horse-show where riders, called Csikós, perform breathtaking stunts, such as the five-in-hand ride while standing on galloping horses. After this enthralling visit to the farm, we shall travel back to Budapest in the early evening.

SATURDAY, 14th SEPTEMBER 2019

10:00 – 15:00 “Taste of Budapest” sightseeing tour

For a great start to the day, we begin our tour in the 100-year-old Great Market Hall. Here you will find a large variety of products from paprika to meats, from fruits and vegetables, to lace and embroidery. Our guide will take you on a walk through the Hall, showing you the most interesting details, including the basic raw materials of the Hungarian cuisine. This is the best place to shop goodies like: salami, paprika, goose liver, local spirits, local wines and Hungarian souvenirs. Afterwards as a special treat you shall taste the famous Hungarian speciality called “Hungaricum”.

The subsequent stop will be the Parliament, a Neo-Gothic building, located on the Danube river bank. The building is 268m long, its greatest width is 123m and the dome is 96m high. The outer walls are adorned with 88 statues depicting Hungarian monarchs, commanders and famous warriors. The Hungarian Royal Crown and other Hungarian coronation regalia are exhibited in the Dome Hall. A light lunch including traditional Hungarian dishes with a modern touch will be served at the Budapest Bistro.
